

REBELS MARCH TOWARD CARACAS

President Castro Makes Preparations to Defend the Capital from Revolutionary Army.

FOREIGNERS FEAR

Venezuelan President Shows Remarkable Activity and Generalship in Arranging Affairs.

(Special To The Gazette) Caracas, Jan. 5.—Fifteen hundred revolutionists are reported to be marching on Caracas, and President Castro is making energetic preparations to defend the capital. His activity and resourcefulness continue to surprise the foreign residents. Fourteen hundred revolutionists under Gen. Ramos and Penabaz attacked 800 government troops under the command of Gen. Acosta at a point near Guatire. After four hours' fighting the revolutionists abandoned the field and the town of Guatire. Rebels Are Killed. They had fifty-seven killed and many wounded. One of their guns was captured. A prisoner captured by the government forces is authority for the statement that the revolutionists still lack ammunition. It is reported that Castro is negotiating with Gen. Matos, the leader of the revolutionary party. The answers from the powers to President Castro's counter proposition in the matter of referring the Venezuelan issues to The Hague tribunal have not yet been received here. End of Panic. Owing to an agreement that has been made between the commercial bodies and prominent individuals here to accept the notes of the bank of Venezuela at their full value, the panic that was started by the bank's refusal to redeem its notes has subsided and business has resumed its normal aspect. News reached here that 1,600 revolutionary troops under the command of Gen. Penabaz and Gen. Ramos, who were attempting to advance upon the capital, were forced, after a fight that lasted several hours, to flee by about 800 government troops under Gen. Samuel Acosta. Allies Aid the Rebels. The Liberal, a government organ, published a long communication from the Venezuelan consul at Willemstad stating that the officers of the German warships Falke and Vineta are having unceasing intercourse with Gen. Matos, the Venezuelan revolutionary leader, who is now on the island of Curaçoa. There is no truth in the report published in the United States that a government force was defeated within eight miles of this city by the revolutionists.

OIL EXCITEMENT REIGNS IN KENTUCKY

New Gushers Promise to Place the State High in the Rank of Producers.

Barboursville, Ky., Jan. 6.—Big oil wells are rapidly appearing in the Kentucky oil fields and the influx of operators continues each day. No less than fifty counties are being rapidly developed; new ones are being entered continually and Kentucky gives promise with the completion of the pipe line in soon be third or fourth among the oil producing states. The biggest well that has been drilled in the state for some time has just come in in the new Cumberland county field. The oil gushed high over the derrick for several hours. In Wayne county, in the new Beaver Creek region, a local company brought in a gusher well which started off with a showing of 250 barrels daily. In Knox county a Pennsylvania company drilled in a well in the Richland field which started by producing 250 barrels daily. The Standard Oil Company is endeavoring to get control of as much territory as possible, and the position the Standard has taken in regard to the Kentucky field is one of the causes of the present activity. To Visit Beloit: All members of Omega Council Royal League who can go to Beloit this evening to attend the installation are requested to be on hand to take the 7:30 o'clock car.

MISS BROWN FELL ON SLIPPERY WALK

Is Still Partly Dazed From Severe Injuries Received Last Saturday Afternoon.

Miss Melbie Brown suffered serious injuries by falling on a slippery sidewalk late Saturday afternoon and has not regained her faculties sufficiently to tell exactly how the accident occurred. In her fall she struck on her face, her forehead receiving the full shock of the blow which was of such force that the blood spurted from her ears, eyes and nostrils. Miss Brown resides with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Slawson at 21 Clark street, being a sister of Mrs. Slawson. She is a music teacher and was returning home from giving a lesson on Saturday afternoon about four o'clock. Just how near home she was when the accident occurred is not known as Miss Brown has been in no condition to be questioned. Was Wandering in Yard. Miss Brown was discovered wandering around in the yard at the Slawson home by her sister and Miss Mabel Sanborn, who were returning from town. She realized where she was and said that she had been in the house but grew faint and came out for air. She seemed dazed, however, and tried to avoid her sister. Her face was covered with blood and her clothing badly spattered. Her cloak was partly off. Miss Brown was assisted to the house where she has lain in a partially dazed condition ever since. Last night she rested quite comfortably and today she seemed considerably improved although her eyes are swollen almost entirely shut. Dr. J. W. St. John is the attending physician and it is not believed that there will be any serious results from the injuries.

SUIT FOR COAL PAYMENT TRIED

Case Was Argued in Justice Earle's Court, and Held Open for Decision.

Two cases were tried in Justice Earle's court Monday, and both of them were held open for decisions which will be rendered later. The first was the suit of Ralph A. Whitsett and William P. Whitsett against the Hanson Furniture company. The question involved was the payment for some coal which it is alleged was not delivered under contract specifications. Whitehead & Matheson represented the plaintiffs and Fethers, Jeffris & Mount, the defendant. John Lang brought suit against Arthur Hern for wages, and the case was tried. After the evidence had been taken the case was held open until Thursday for decision. The suit of William Brown, an infant by R. W. Adair as next friend, against Thomas Finnegan, was adjourned to January 15.

SENATOR HOAR ON ANTI-TRUST

The Veteran Massachusetts Senator Telis of Evils and Remedies Provided in Bill.

A MASTERLY TALK

Says There Are No Evil Effects Yet, But That They May Be Expected Later.

(Special By Scripps-McRae.) Washington, D. C., Jan. 6.—The Senate listened today to a masterly discussion on the trust problem from the lips of Senator Hoar of Massachusetts. Taking his bill as the text of his remarks the Senator admitted that it was imperfect, being tentative and experimental in character. No Trust Evil. He contended that with the exception of the coal strike the country had not yet suffered from the trust evil in any way to effect the general prosperity. So it was fortunate rather than for the present that congress should act. He enumerated the chief evils of trusts for the future as follows: Its Evils To Come. Destruction of competition, management of local industries by absenteeism in the interest of absentee's capital, destruction of local public spirit, fraudulent capitalization, secrecy, management for private benefits of officials, power to corrupt the elections and in some cases to corrupt the courts, the want of personal responsibility to public sentiment, absence of personal liability for contracts or wrong doing, holding of vast properties in mortmain. In the "dead man's hand" to use an ancient phrase of English law. Remedy Offered. To remedy these evils, he proposed the following regulations: Publicity on the conduct of the trust's business, power to stop their business altogether if they violate laws, strict penalties on their officers for violation of laws, personal liability for debts and wrongs.

JUDGE ORDERS PROBE FOR DEALERS IN COAL

Alleged Combination of Retail Dealers in Ohio May Be in Contravention of Law.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 6.—Judge Neff, at the opening of the January term of the Common Pleas court, instructed the grand jury to inquire into the alleged combination of retail coal dealers with a view to ascertaining if the Ohio anti-trust law is being violated. The judge read the section of the law which makes such a combination illegal, and he told the jurors they must act if they found that the law was being violated. The dealers do not deny that they have a price agreement. From time to time circular letters are issued fixing the prices to be charged for coal, and under the by-laws of the association any dealer who cuts the price is liable to a fine.

TRACK MEN BEGIN SPRING TRAINING

University Athletes Are Preparing for Their Contests by Beginning Practice Work Early.

At this season of the year university track men are hunting up their faded running suits and their battered spiked shoes and are preparing for their preliminary work. Before the end of next week nearly every western college and university will have a number of men out for daily training. Some are already in the thick of it. The runners have been out for "wind" off and on all the fall. Manager Kilpatrick is sending forth reports of a good team, but he shudders when he thinks of the number of new men that the University of Chicago has secured, some of them extremely promising. Over half a hundred freshmen will be among the candidates at Madison, but only a few of them have shown marked ability. Stelmets of Milwaukee and Todd of Aurora are two hopeful high jumpers. Mowry at the half mile and Findlay and Schofield at the mile are expected to make a good account of themselves. But it will be on her old men that Wisconsin will have to rely in the meets this year, unless the present outlook proves to have a silver lining. The first dual meet will be with Chicago at Chicago on January 31. An open meet will probably take place at Madison on a week earlier. Butterworth, Northwestern's new athletic chief, is going at the track team with a vim. He plans to organize a team in each department of the university, law, dental, divinity, arts, medical and pharmacy. By playing these departments against one another he expects to create a healthy rivalry within the school which will bring out much material which would otherwise remain undeveloped.

BELOIT FACTORIES ARE GROWING FAST

Line City Concerns Plan to Enlarge Plants and Take on More Men.

One of Beloit's large factories, the Barrett Paper Manufacturing company is about to make extensive additions to its plant. The present equipment will be doubled, involving an expenditure of nearly $200,000. Among the machinery which has already been ordered is a monster Corliss cross compound condensing engine from the Milwaukee works of the Allis-Chalmers company. Twenty-nine 78-inch drivers will be made by the Beloit Iron Works to augment the paper making apparatus. Before the end of the year the Beloit Iron Works will increase the capacity of their plant so as to necessitate the employment of two hundred more men, bringing the works to twice their present size. Fairbanks, Morse & Co. will stand at the head of the Beloit factory list. In the past year additions amounting to over $250,000 have been made to their plant. The improvements and extensions at the Berlin Machine works have reached a total of more than $150,000. The Thompson & Sons Manufacturing company has planned the enlargement of their plow and gas engine works, and expects to take on about 100 more men.

STATE NOTES

A store and stock at Manitowish were destroyed by fire, the damage amounting to $50,000. A trolley combine has been planned of the electric companies of Eau Claire and Chippewa Falls. Employees of the Wis. div. of the Omaha road met at Eau Claire and decided to ask an increase in wages. Relatives of Jackson I. Case, the millionaire Racine manufacturer, have given out the report that his condition is very serious. Sheboygan's city council is looking up the question of municipal ownership of its electric light plant. Green Bay expects to have a gas war and cheaper gas. It is announced that a new gas company will be running in the city within a year. Rev. E. M. Martin, of the Presbyterian church at Richland Center, has accepted a call as assistant in Rev. Kent's church at Brooklyn, N. Y. Neenah paper mills have returned to the longer hours formerly observed and this action may precipitate a strike on the part of the employees. An accident in the central power house tied up all traffic in Milwaukee for nearly two hours. The breakdown came just as all the theaters were out. John M. Handley has resigned as manager of the Bijou Opera House in Milwaukee in order to take steps to secure a $25,000 legacy left him by English relatives. Frank Williams, an Oshkosh convicted pickpocket, married Georgie Atherton whom he met when she was in jail during the Elk's carnival on a drunk and disorderly charge. Stone Cutting Completed: Admiration has been freely expressed of the chiselled tablets on the front of the Carnegie library building. The designs are attractive and in architectural harmony with the rest of the building. The work has been finished and the scaffolding and canvas shed which protected the workmen have been removed.

SEÑOR SAGASTA DIES AT MADRID

Former Spanish Prime Minister Expires from Heart Disease Early Monday Evening.

REMARKABLE MAN

Political Changes Made Him a Refugee from His Home and Then Gave Him Power.

(Special To The Gazette.) Madrid, Jan. 6.—Senor Praxedes Mateo Sagasta, former premier of Spain, is dead, aged 75 years. At 6:30 he had an attack of heart failure, and it was then thought he was dead; he rallied, however, and lived for four hours and a half. Senor Sagasta's intellect was unimpaired until his last hours. He talked to his daughter, the presidents of the senate and of congress and to the archbishop of Toledo. King Alfonso has written a letter of sympathy to Senor Sagasta's family. During the former premier's illness the queen mother and other members of the royal family frequently sent officials to inquire as to his progress. Sagasta's Career. Praxedes Mateo Sagasta was born at Torrecilla de Cameros, in the province of Logrono, on July 24, 1827. He began life as a civil engineer, but at the age of 27 drifted into politics. Spain's history during the last half-century has been a stormy one, with brief intervals of sunshine, and Senor Sagasta had a hand in most of the exciting events that occurred. He took a prominent part in the insurrection of 1856, and when that affair miscarried he had to fly the country. He took refuge in France, but when a general amnesty was announced he returned to his native country and threw himself into journalism. He became editor of La Iberia, the principal organ of the progressist party, and soon began to exercise considerable power. Becomes a Refugee. Constitutional methods of reform, however, are terribly slow in Spain, and Senor Sagasta began to weary of them. Thus he eagerly took part in the insurrection of June, 1866. It was a dismal failure, however, and the future prime minister was again compelled to fly to France. He did not return to Spain until after the fall of Queen Isabella II. In the republican regime of 1874 he was in office as foreign and home secretary and as premier. The "coup" which restored the Bourbons to the throne sent Sagasta into a brief retirement. Upon the death of the king in 1885 and the retirement of the entire conservative government Sagasta found himself at the head of affairs, and successfully combated the clamors of the republicans, who shrieked for universal suffrage, till the birth of the little king, when Sagasta, confident in the strength of the liberals, dissolved the cortes and won by a small majority. It was in this period that he invested his party with that democratic character which is now more marked than ever. In 1891 Sagasta was asked to form a party, but was obliged to resign within a month or so. Obeys the Queen. The assassination of Senor Canovas compelled the queen regent to appeal to him as the only available statesman. In spite of his age he came to the rescue, formed a government, and exercised considerable wisdom in dealing with the many difficult problems which confronted Spain at that time, chief of which was the insurrection in Cuba, where Weyer was butchering the natives and otherwise creating the troubles that eventually caused the Spanish-American war. Sagasta had always favored home rule for Cuba, and, although a law was passed, it was never enforced owing to the insurrection in the island. Apart from his political life Sagasta was a kind-hearted man, of even temper, sunny disposition, and with all a Spaniard's love of power.

HIGH SCHOOL IS HIGHLY PRAISED

TO BE VISITED BY DELEGATIONS FROM OTHER CITIES.

TO INSPECT MANUAL TRAINING

Exhibit Made by Janesville Students at Milwaukee, Attracted Attention and Commendation.

During the next month or so the Janesville High school will be visited by several superintendents and boards of education from other cities in the state. This is one of the direct results of the exhibit which was sent by the manual training department to Milwaukee last week in connection with the annual meeting of the Wisconsin State Teachers' Association.

The visits to the Janesville school are to be made with the purpose of inspecting the manual training department. It is expected that the outcome will be the establishment of several similar departments in the schools throughout the state. Superintendents who are interested were convinced by the exhibit at Milwaukee that they could find no more practical object lesson for the members of the board than a visit to the Janesville school. Consequently arrangements for these visits were partially made.

To Inspect Department
The first visit will be made by the superintendent and board of the Racine school. Among the other cities to be represented later are Marinette and Florence. The greatest interest is being taken in the manual training by Wisconsin schools and the exhibit made by Janesville students attracted great attention. The exhibit was placed in the gymnasium of the Normal school and was visited by the majority of the teachers and superintendents in attendance at the convention.

The exhibit was especially conspicuous because it was the only display made by a high school. There was an exhibit made by the Institute for the Deaf and Dumb at Delavan and also by the Oshkosh Normal school but the Janesville exhibit was the only complete exemplification of manual training. The other two emphasized some special line.

City is Admired
In fact Janesville and its high school could have had no better advertisement than it received through this exhibit. It brought the Janesville school prominently before the educators not only of this state but of the entire United States, because many of the leading educators of the nation were on the convention program. The universal exhibit and the school which it represented was a source of gratification to Supt. H. C. Buell and Prof. George M. Brace.

OBJECTED TO SUCH DRINKING ON CARS

Women Who Rode on the Interurban Told Their Opinion of Fellow Passengers.

It was an indignant little bunch of women that flutered down West Milwaukee street yesterday afternoon. Their disgust was so overwhelming that their voices rose in accord until the words were almost distinguishable a block away. The bystanders could not help overhearing the cause of the umbrage which had possessed the cluster of angry femininity, nor did they attempt to.

The women had just alighted from the interurban car on which they had made the trip from Beloit, and they thought it "simply a disgrace that those horrid drunken men should be allowed to drink whiskey right there in the car." One man, it seemed, whose person was replete with alcoholic fumes, had been sitting in the seat just across the aisle from the ladies, and had been so nearly overcome by the intoxicant that he could hardly keep from falling out the seat. The ladies were obliged to sit where they were. There were no vacant seats.

Up in the smoking room, visible through the glass door, things were even worse. A bottle of liquor was being promulgated among a group of young fellows who were old enough to know better. Altogether the women were quite out of sorts over the experience they had just gone through, and thought matters had come to a nice pass when they couldn't take a ride on an electric car without falling into the midst of a band of besotted revellers and seeing the vile intoxicant going the rounds before their very eyes.

BOWLING TEAM WAS FIXED BY CONTEST

Men Who Are To Roll Against Rockford Tonight Were Chosen on Monday Evening.

By an impromptu match rolled last evening the men were chosen who will meet the East Rockford Five on the Hockett alleys this evening. They are Hockett, Gibson, Welsh, Higgins, and Nolan; Rice substitute. Three other finger ball enthusiasts took part in the contest. The men feel that they have no insecurity before them tonight. Only the hardest kind of bowling will beat the visitors, one of whom is accredited with a perfect 300 score, made in competition last winter.

PRACTICE RESUMED MONDAY AFTERNOON

Basket Ball Team at High School Begins Work After a Two Weeks' Rest.

After a two week's intermission the high school basket ball team met again for practice on Monday afternoon. Although the team did not meet, as a man, during the vacation, nearly all of the members did enough playing during the holidays to keep them in excellent condition. The boys are jubilant over their prospects of turning out a winning team. Their team play has never been better, and they are uniformly speedy in passing the ball.

No games have yet been scheduled. Manager Norris has been in correspondence with the managers of other teams, but has not filled any dates. His purpose is to keep the schedule more or less open during the season, which will not terminate until well along in March. The contests will be arranged from week to week.

Two games will probably be played with Fort Atkinson. Mr. Norris says. The principal of the school, who also acts as manager of the team, has been kept from his duties by injuries which he received several weeks ago, and so matters have been at a standstill at that school. It is proposed to play Milton College; Burlington and other high schools; either Waukesha high school or Carroll college at Waukesha; and probably several Milwaukee teams, normal and high school.

MEDAL OF GOLD TO THE YOUNG CADETS

Prize To Be Given to the Best Drilled Man When Manual Is Learned.

Christ Church Cadets will meet in the Parish house tonight for their weekly drill, continuing the use of the new manual which has just been substituted for that under which they began their soldierly life. Now that all of the non-commissioned positions have been filled by competitive drill, a new incentive has been placed before the cadets. Two medals, one of gold and the other of silver, of handsome design, will be given to the winners in a drilling contest to be held when the manual has been thoroughly mastered. The conditions of the award of the medals have not yet been determined.

RESUMED WORK AT PUBLIC SCHOOLS

After two weeks' vacation the public schools opened yesterday morning with a large attendance in all departments. The second ward kindergarten is now established in its permanent home in the Adams school, the new addition to the building having been completed. The working apparatus was moved from St. Mary's hall where the kindergarten was held last term, during the vacation. No use will be made of the large room in the second story of the addition at present.

There are a few changes in the teaching force. Miss Grace Mount took her place this morning as a member of the High school faculty, having been secured to succeed Miss Ruby Acker who resigned last term on account of ill health. Miss Acker had expected to return after the holidays but several days ago she would not permit it.

Miss Harriet Bostwick has been appointed as a supply teacher and has charge of the first grade at the Washington school, the position formerly held by Mrs. De Alton Thomas, nee Miss Alice Shearer. Miss Margaret Murphy, who is teaching in the Douglas school in place of Miss Abbie Atwood, is also a supply teacher.

TRAINMEN ARE FULL OF HOPE

DO NOT THINK THAT ANSWER IS FINAL.

20 PER CENT REQUEST REFUSED

Brakemen and Conductors Meet in Conference with Officials of Companies at Chicago.

There was some grumbling among the railroad men in the city when they last evening heard the answer of the officials to the wage increase demands but most of the employees took the matter philosophically and refused to consider it the end of the matter. The reply which was made to the committees of trainmen and conductors who are in Chicago, and who will stay there until an agreement is arrived at, was that the 20 per cent increase could not be granted.

Will Argue Question
Although the companies were firm in this part of their answer, they told employees' representatives that they would be willing to meet them and discuss the request.

As soon as this decision was given the committees from the different roads went into session with their own employers. The employees of both the Milwaukee and Northwestern companies have their delegates on the spot ready to push the cause of the brakemen and conductors until a satisfactory settlement is reached. The question will be discussed individually by each line, but the cause will be kept common.

Officials Posing Matters
One sentiment which a number of the men who hope to be gainers by this request expressed last evening was that they were willing to "leave it to Morrissey." P. H. Morrissey is the grand chief of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and he has been in the forefront in urging the effort to gain higher wages.

E. E. Clark of the Order of Railroad Conductors is working hand in hand with Mr. Morrissey, the latter booming the cause of the men of his own brotherhood. Both of these men are taking a more passive attitude for a few days, leaving the committees to go ahead, but they will step into the conferences, if no decision results soon.

MAY ESTABLISH CHURCH THIS WEEK

English Lutherans Plan for Organization on Thursday—Their Pastor Has Been Ill.

Prospective members of the English Lutheran church are looking forward with enthusiasm to Thursday evening. On that date it is expected that the Mission which has been conducted for several months will be brought to an honorable end. In its place a regularly organized church will be founded. Rev. Frick, a prominent Milwaukee Lutheran pastor, will be present on that date.

Much will depend on whether Rev. A. C. Andra's health will allow his presence at that time. For some days he has been ill with a trial ailment and he expects that he will have recovered in sufficient season. On Sunday he was unable to be with his mission. In his stead Mr. Fisher one of the Chicago students, who has become well liked by the congregation, conducted the meeting.

...Forty Years Ago...

Janesville Gazette, Tuesday, January 5, 1863.—The dispatches today inform us that Gen. Sullivan has again attacked and whipped Forrest. These battles must have occurred south of Corinth. Our readers will be interested in the details when they come to hand, as nearly all the Wisconsin regiments in Grant's army are in Sullivan's division.

It is now certain that the enemy were defeated at Murfreesboro and retreated on Sunday to Tullahoma, 39 miles south from the battle ground. The loss of killed and wounded, it appears, was larger on their side than ours, but they have the most prisoners, unless a larger number have been taken by us since the battle. For the number engaged, about 70,000 on each side, it was the most ferocious and bloody of the war. Both sides appear to have been determined not to give up. They skirmished and fought eight days, three of them almost hand to hand lights.

Mr. David Walsh of Harmony is raising a full blooded Devon bull calf which weighed 755 pounds on New Year's day, when it was just six months old. This we consider a very promising calf and when full grown will, no doubt, be one of the finest animals in the county. It is creditable to the farmers of Rock county that they are striving to raise the best stock in the county, appreciating the fact that such animals do not cost more than those of an inferior kind.

The young men of this city who wish to pass the long evenings of the winter pleasantly and profitably are requested to meet at the common council rooms this evening to organize an association agreeable to their wishes. Every young man who desires to promote his own welfare is particularly requested to be present.

COMMON COUNCIL HELD ITS FIRST SESSION FOR THE YEAR 1903

TRANSACTIONED MUCH IMPORTANT BUSINESS.

BONDS HAVE BEEN APPROVED

The Request of the Municipal League as Reported to Committee To Be Acted Upon.

Quite a number of important matters were transacted at the first meeting of the council for 1903 held last evening. The ordinance authorizing the issuance of $25,000 additional city hall bonds, was passed. The statement and schedule and the special assessment list for the improvement of Milton avenue were presented and accepted, as was the special assessment list for the widening of Linden avenue. The annual report of the Chief Engineer was presented and adopted. The petition of the Federated Trades Council for union labor on the streets and a nine-hour day was postponed. The request of the Municipal League for an itemized statement of the city hall and crusher expenditures was referred to the finance committee.

Mayor Presides
Mayor Richardson presided at the meeting and all of the aldermen were present, except Lowell and Gilkey. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted.

The city treasurer's report for December was referred to the finance committee and later received and placed on file as was the municipal court report for the same month.

Vankirk's Bill
A communication from W. T. Vankirk in regard to his bill for groceries furnished for the city lock-up in '99, was referred to the finance committee who asked for more time. The annual report of Chief Engineer Klein was presented and placed on file.

The Petition
A petition from the Federated Trades Council was presented asking that only union labor be employed on city work and that nine hours constitute a day's labor. This was referred to the highway committee who asked for further time to consider it.

Assessment List
The special assessment list for the improvement of Linden avenue was presented and adopted and the mayor and clerk instructed to sign the tax list for collection by the treasurer. The resolution, authorizing the mayor and city clerk to issue special assessment bonds to the amount of $4,800 for the improvement of Milton avenue was adopted as was the report of the street assessment committee on the amount due from those who elected to pay for the improvement and the mayor and clerk were instructed to sign the tax lists for the treasurer.

Municipal League
The clerk presented a request from the Municipal League asking for an itemized statement of expenditures on the city hall up-to-date, a list of the orders drawn, the amount of each and to whom payable; second, for an itemized account of the city stone crusher plant for 1902, of all orders drawn, all bills allowed, date or order, amount and name of payee, for what issued and where payable. When bills for labor are assigned, the name of the workman and the assignee, date and amount of all credits and name of person for whom money was received.

The council was requested to have this report published in the official city paper, or should they regard such publication as unauthorized use of the public funds to have the clerk hand the statement to the committee or any one of them for publication. Clerk Badger stated that it would take several days' hard work to prepare such a statement. On motion the request was referred to the finance committee with power to act.

YOUNG JEFFERSONS AT GRAND TONIGHT

Talented Sons of Joe Jefferson Present Their Sparkling Comedy Success, "The Rivals."

Two sons of a famous sire; Joseph Jefferson, Jr., and William W. Jefferson, will appear here at the Myers Grand this evening in Sheridan's great comedy, "The Rivals." Large and fashionable audiences greet these admirable artists everywhere, from the Atlantic to the Pacific. "The Rivals" has undoubtedly played to the largest receipts ever known in theatrical history. Joseph Jefferson, Jr., as Sir Laetius

Wm. W. Jefferson in "THE RIVALS."

O'Trigger excels all other characterizations of this part, which was so admirably played by the late W. J. Florence. William W. Jefferson as Bob Acres is said to be the most worthy successor to his father. The supporting company embraces the principal members of Joseph Jefferson's company, which played with

In order that the finance committee might have a full number to act on this request Mayor Richardson appointed Alderman Rice as a member of the committee in place of Alderman Gilkey, who has left the city. The committee consists of Aldermen Murray, Lowell and Rice.

Ariel Ladder
In the chief engineer's report he stated that the aerial ladder was in bad condition and needed new axles and wheels which would cost about $180, also that the department needed two new cut-off nozzles and two small scaling ladders. The fire and water committee were instructed to carry out these recommendations. The lighting committee reported that during the month of November 29 lights were out all night in December 8 and so far this month 4, also that one-third of the lights do not start until 8 o'clock at night and are shut off at 5 a. m., and they recommended that a deduction be made from the light rentals to cover this shortage.

Trouble With Lights
P. H. Korst, superintendent of the Electric company, was present and stated that he had no doubt but that the report was correct and a settlement could be made on that basis. He said the trouble was not with the current but with the lights which were old and that they were there to meet the lighting committee to see about putting in a circuit of 20 new style lights to show the council and citizens what they were like.

Mr. Howe of the Electric company, stated to the council that the company were no better satisfied with the lights than was the council and they wished to improve them.

Left To Committee
On motion the matter was left with the lighting committee with power to act and after talk at the close of the meeting they authorized the company to put in a trial circuit of twenty-five lights in the business part of the town.

$25,000 Bonds
The ordinance for issuing fifty city hall improvement bonds of $500 each and providing for the annual tax levy to cover same was given its first and second reading and then passed under a suspension of the rules.

Continue Suit
The suit pending against the Janesville Street Railway was continued until May 1, on recommendation of the city engineer that the company could do nothing this winter towards bonding their tracks. An order for a fire alarm box at the corner of Pleasant and Pine streets was referred to the fire and water committee with the power to act.

The Northwestern Road
The city clerk was instructed to serve a notice on the Chicago & Northwestern railway company that the viaduct at Galena street was not in conformity with the plans. It was three and one-half feet higher than in the plans and the approaches were not what was called for. The city will not accept the viaduct unless it is built according to the plans and specifications.

An order that the mayor appoint a committee of five from the council to ascertain the advisability and cost of publishing the proceedings of the council in the official city paper, was adopted.

The Water Company
The Janesville Water Company was taken to task for not making extensions of the water mains ordered last June and also an extension ordered a year ago on Pleasant street in the neighborhood of the wharves a short time ago. A representative of the company was requested to be at the next meeting and explain matters.

The ordinance requiring the motor man or a flagman to go ahead of electric cars before crossing the railroad tracks was given its third reading and passed.

On motion the council adjourned.

"The Dean" during his short preliminary tour this season. The supporting company includes Messrs. John Jack, Walter Ware, Harry Quinn, and the Misses Follet Paget, Blanche Bender, Jessie Sweet and others, all members of the original Joseph Jefferson Co.

Handmade Philosophy
More of us would make good resolutions for next year if it were not for the shame of having to confess that we would be bettered.

January is always represented as having two faces. One face looks back on the fun we had before we swore off, and the other looks forward to the fun we will have when we break the good resolve.

There are men, however, who do not break their New Year's vows. The death list of Jan. 2 always names them.

There should always be proper discussion of good resolutions before they are adopted. Once there was a man who swore off staying out late at nights, because he believed it caused his wife loss of sleep and temper.

This man's wife also swore of scolding her husband for staying out late at nights, because she thought it was not right for her to censure him for such attention to business.

And when he realized that he would not have been scolded any more, and she realized that she had vowed to avoid doing something she was not to have occasion to do, it caused unhappiness in that household.

There is such a thing as trying to be too good.—Chicago Tribune.

12 Minutes for Lunch.

That is the average time spent in a large city restaurant by three thousand lunchers. It takes three hours to digest a fresh egg soft boiled; three hours to digest a boiled apple dumpling; three hours to digest fresh roast beef. In fact, three hours is about the time required to digest the average twelve minute lunch. The object of the hasty lunch is to let the busy man get back to his office work. But when the brain is active, the stomach is inactive for lack of necessary blood. The natural consequence is indigestion, and indigestion opens the door to many diseases.

Indigestion is cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, and enables the perfect digestion and assimilation of food.

"It is with heartfelt gratitude that I send this testimonial which I wish you to publish with my name and address," writes Ma Willis Seaman, of Washingtonville, Orange Co., N. Y. "I had stomach trouble from childhood and suffered with it more or less as I grew up. At the age of 26 I was broken down with dyspepsia. My suffering was terrible. Could not eat without distress. Could only eat a few certain things and was not able to work half the time. Everything I tried only gave me temporary relief. My wife finally persuaded me to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pleasant Pellets.' I took six bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and two vials of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. I then felt so well that I stopped taking medicine. Several months have passed and I can do the hardest kind of work, can eat anything that is set before me and enjoy it. I am 27 years old and this is the first time I have ever been well."

Free. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser in paper covers is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only; or 31 stamps for cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

WHOLE SOME TEMPERANCE LAWS

The city of London, England put in force January first, a code of temperance laws, that are both wholesome and practical.

They have to do largely with the habitual drunkard. Under the old law a drunkard could not be arrested unless disorderly, but under the present statute, drunkenness is crime. The police courts are crowded daily with this class, and for the third offense within twelve months the culprit is blacklisted, and any man who furnishes him drink within three years, is subject to a fine and imprisonment.

The following instance, from the Inter Ocean dispatches of Sunday, are typical examples of the law:

"You will go to prison for a month," said a Salford magistrate to a man arraigned for drunkenness yesterday. "You will be placed on the blacklist, and while in prison you will be photographed. A copy of this will be sent to all license holders in Salford and the surrounding district. Any publican serving you with drink in the next three years is liable to a heavy fine."

A London magistrate, in sentencing a woman habitual drunkard today said:

"If you attempt to get served, you will be fined. If any one treats you, he or she will be fined. If you get liquor in the next three years, it will be at your peril."

From these expressions of two different magistrates in the case of a man and woman, the fate of any one who may be convicted of drunkenness three times in a year will be understood. The act also protects children. Any one found drunk in charge of a child is liable to a fine of $10 or a month's imprisonment. Several women in London and the provinces have already been punished under this clause.

The new law also effects hundreds of clubs in all parts of the city, where intemperate have been dispensed club members, who drink to excess, share the same fate, as the saloon loafer, and common drunkard.

The law should go a step farther, and protect minors. If it is difficult to reform a confirmed drunkard, but there ought to be some way in England, as well as in every other country, to prevent the boys from forming the habit.

Very few young men learn to drink after they are twenty-one. They discover as soon as they get out in life for themselves, that almost every avenue of opportunity is closed to the young man who drinks.

Railroads will not employ them, they are not wanted in stores or offices, and they are never wanted in places of responsibility. English laws may not be adapted to the popular notion of American freedom. Our population is so complex, and the doctrine of personal liberty is so strongly proclaimed, that any law which attempts to regulate morals, is denounced most vigorously.

The hope of the nation, so far as temperance is concerned, is in the preventive, rather than through any radical reform movement.

The time to save a man from becoming a drunkard, is in boyhood, and the fact is more fully appreciated today, than ever before. The next generation will be a generation of temperance men. If the boys of today are properly guided.

Industry has placed a bar upon the habit that is saving many young men from drink. It remains for the guardians of childhood to keep the fountain pure, and when this is done, the nation will need no laws to punish the habitual drunkard, for he will not be in evidence.

SAVING MONEY

One of the great weaknesses of Americans, as a class, is their lack of thrift in saving money.

Ability to earn is so common, and opportunities are so abundant, that the number represented in any calling, who are not able to earn more than a living, is exceedingly small, and yet we spend so freely that thousands of people never know what it is to have $10 to the good.

The state of Massachusetts, noted for its thrift, has recently introduced in its public schools, a system of saving, that is producing wonderful results. As an educator it is intensely practical, and worthy of adoption by every school in the land. Mrs. Taylor, a correspondent for a Chicago paper, thus describes the plan:

"Somerville, Mass., has an innovation in the way of savings bank accounts with the school children. It is called the stamp-saving system, and is carried on by the Somerville Savings bank in co-operation with the schools of the city. The system was introduced into the city schools at the beginning of the school year, and during the first two months, $3,500 was deposited in the bank by the school children.

"The system is under the direction of a committee of leading men and women of the city, together with the superintendent of the city schools. The bank issues stamp-deposit cards, which have on one side blanks for the recording of the names of the children purchasing them, and on the other side ruled spaces for affixing the stamps. Each card costs 1 cent, 3 cents, 5 cents, 10 cents, and 25 cents. These are furnished by the bank to the teachers of the different schools, who sell them to the children.

"Each child buys stamps as many or of such value as he can pay for—until his card is full, when a new one is purchased.

"When a card or cards hold stamps to the value of $1 or more they may be exchanged for regular deposit books of the savings bank. This exchange is effected through the teachers, or the children may present their cards directly to the bank and secure bank books with the amount of their deposits credited to their account. The number of bank accounts has had a surprising increase and a corresponding number of young citizens are feeling the joy of possession.

"At the Prescott school on Pearl street an average of $50 per week has been deposited thus far during the school session, and can be done in a few minutes.

"The system entails some extra work on the masters of the schools and the teachers of the different grades, but all are as interested as the pupils. The buying of the stamps takes place before or after the school session, and can be done in a few minutes.

"A collector from the bank calls at each school on stated days of the week, receives the money collected by the teachers for cards and stamps and leaves a new supply to be sent to the children.

"If at any time the money is needed, the child wishing to withdraw his deposit will present his cards to the teacher of his grade, who forwards them to the bank. In one week the whole amount of the account is turned over to the child. No child is allowed to withdraw less than the whole amount at once.

The cards are not transferable, and if a card is lost the money it represents is lost."

The children of American homes have so much done for them, that the idea of saving rarely enters their heads. The boy who graduates from university or college, is very poorly equipped, as a rule to enter either commercial or professional life, and stand on his own feet.

He has seldom been taught the value of money, and practical knowledge of any kind, comes slow to him after graduation day. If he had been taught to save the pennies and nickels in boyhood the lesson would prove of great value.

This practical lesson would be of equal value to the boy or girl, who never graduates from any school. It is seldom a question of earning, in this world, but it is always a question of saving. The great army of discontented workmen, is not composed of men who own their own homes, or who have a few hundred dollars in the bank.

This class of men have long since discovered, that capital is the result of accumulation, and they are so intent on earning and saving, that they are never in sympathy with unreasonable demands.

Janesville can afford to adopt the Somerville plan. It might prove a large investment for the bank, but it is practical philanthropy and education of the right sort.

AS IT SHOULD BE
 The citizens of Indianapolis, Miss., are having a unique experience, that should result in teaching them a wholesome lesson.

For eight years Mrs. Minnie V. Cox has rendered acceptable service in the capacity of postmistress, but recently she became frightened by indignities offered by the lawless element of the town and Mrs. Cox surrendered the office and resigned.

The town was left without a post-office and bitter complaint was filed with the department but to no purpose, for it was found upon investigation that Mrs. Cox had rendered satisfactory service, that her bondsmen were leading citizens, and that the law-abiding people were not in sympathy with her removal.

They were advised by the postmaster general, the president concurring, that a town which permitted lawlessness to control, to the extent of insulting any department of the government, was not entitled to much consideration.

What the outcome will be is difficult to determine. Mrs. Cox is a woman of property and not dependent upon the office for a living.

The chances are that she will be succeeded by another representative of her race. If for no other purpose than to teach the inhabitants a much needed lesson.

The president is not disposed to trifle with this class of questions, and while he has been very considerate in dealing with the south, he will not encourage lawlessness.

Parents can be cruel to children and forget that they they were ever children themselves once.

How are we to reconcile the declaration of a Philadelphia pastor that girls prefer work and independence to matrimony with a formation of a matrimonial club by the young women of Troy, N. Y.? Fortunately, we don't need to try, for the girls are just about the same now as they have been all through the ages; bless them!

Down in South Carolina they have made an innovation in the present pastime of lynching. The mob could not decide whether a negro or his wife was guilty of a crime, and so both were hanged. This may be varied to include an entire family where the doubt is large and the mob needs entertainment.

A girl with a fur boa rescued a man from drowning in New Jersey. Hereafter we shall make no criticisms about the length of these fetching articles of feminine wearing apparel. If they are to be used as ropes when the occasion requires every woman may carry her own fire or water escape.

Murphy leaguers have reorganized for another year's work and will continue in their good work of keeping those who are down trodden by the curse of drink. Their treasury is empty and needs replenishing. This is a fact that would be well to be remembered.

The Princess of Saxony is sorry she was bad and ran off with that little Frenchman and says that she will return to her children living in retirement outside of Saxony in sack cloth and ashes for the rest of her life. The ways of the wicked are bitter.

Mr. Hobson of England has given our millionaire philanthropists the alternative of being known as really good men or types of the robber barons of ancient times. Well, this is an improvement on the original Hobson's choice.

Then there is the "anxious purchaser," who is blamed for the scarcity of coal. But he is only anxious when he can't get what he is after. The short supply cannot thus easily place the blame on the long demand.

A woman in Detroit who keeps boarders secured a ton of hard coal by presenting the price and the business end of a revolver. She should have no trouble in making collections from those she feeds and lodges.

F. M. MARZLUFF CO. ELECT OFFICERS

FACTORY TO BE INCREASED IN SIZE SOON.

PAY A 3 PER CENT DIVIDEND

Statement Gratifying to All Stockholders—Business for the Last Six Months Shows Increase.

The stockholders of the F. M. Marzluff Co. had a meeting last evening at the factory and were very much pleased with the showing made by the company for the last six months. Mr. Marzluff made a statement to the stockholders concerning the business and making a comparison between the last six months of 1901, showed a large increase in the factory's output.

Five Salesmen
Five salesmen besides Mr. Marzluff are now employed by the company and cover the large cities in twenty-four states. Mr. Palmer has for his territory Illinois, Missouri and Southern Wisconsin; Mr. Rice, Northern Wisconsin, Minnesota and North and South Dakota and Iowa; Mr. Firth, Indiana, Michigan and Ohio; Mr. Cocrane, California, Montana, Washington, Idaho, Pennsylvania and one-half of Chicago; Mr. Marten, Louisiana, North and South Carolina, Texas, Tennessee, New York, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Maine and one-half of Chicago. Mr. Marzluff will retain as his territory all the large cities heretofore made by him.

Prosperous Condition
The statement showed that the factory was never in a more prosperous condition than at present. All difficulties between the proprietors and the employees have been adjusted and a perfect harmony reigns. The factory now has orders enough on hand to keep them running for three months.

The New Addition
When the second floor of the factory is completed and the machinery is all in place. Mr. Marzluff will extend an invitation to the stockholders and citizens to inspect the plant while in operation. The plant will then occupy two stories of the building and will have a floor space of 50,000 feet and a capacity of 750 pairs of shoes a day.

Officers Elected
The officers elected for the ensuing year were Fred M. Marzluff, president and treasurer; George J. Hans, secretary. The board of directors are Levi B. Carle, A. E. Matheson, Geo. J. Hans, and Frances P. Marzluff.

Received Checks
The stockholders of the company present last evening were paid the first half of the annual dividend of six per cent and the checks are ready for the balance.

Prosperous Year
Considering the adversity he has had to contend with Mr. Marzluff has built up a business that not only shows him to be a first-class progressive business man, but that the factory is a credit to the city.

MANY EMPLOYEES RECEIVE RAISE

JANESVILLE BARB WIRE CO. GIVES HIGHER WAGES.

FACTORY IS TO RUN NIGHTS

Wage Increase Has Gone Into Effect
—Night Shift Goes on Duty

Next Week.
Between forty and fifty of the seventy employees at the Janesville Barb Wire works are rejoicing over a raise of wages which went into effect this week. It is a 11 per cent. raise and affects all the men who were formerly received $13.75 per day. By the new scale $15.00 per day, or fifteen cents an hour, will be the lowest wages paid at the factory.

To Run Nights Also
Arrangements have also been made to run the factory night and day, beginning next Monday. The force of the employees will be nearly doubled and the new men will also get the benefit of the increased salaries, so that the advance means a large item in its entirety.

Night and Day
For several years, until within the past year, the Janesville Barb wire works was forced to run night and day to supply the demand for their goods. During the past summer business fell off and the market became overstocked so the night shift was abandoned.

Improved Business
The recent rapid increase in business has made it imperative for the local factory to put on its double shift again. The fact that Messrs. Harris have arranged to do this at higher wages for the majority of their employees is greatly appreciated by the men who are interested. The employees will alternate on the day and night shifts, working two weeks in the day and then at night for two weeks.

DR. THORNE AIDS AGED MAN'S SIGHT

Performs a Delicate Operation on the Eye of George Churchill, of Monroe.

George Churchill, a well-known citizen of Monroe, left here for his home last evening in a very happy frame of mind. Several weeks ago Mr. Churchill came here with cataracts on both eyes, one eye being entirely blind and the other partially. He entered the Palmer Memorial Hospital and had a cataract operation performed by Dr. J. P. Thorne. The operation has been a complete success and he has now good distance and near vision in the eye operated on. Mr. Churchill has many friends throughout Southern Wisconsin who will be glad to know of his good fortune. He came to Janesville nearly fifty years ago, remained here for a short time and then went to Monroe where he has since resided and has been continually in business. Although advanced in years Mr. Churchill is vigorous and an active business man and with his restored vision will be able to continue in active work.

Many people here are not aware of the amount of successful surgery that is being performed at the Hospital, the institution being full of patients most of the time.

Mrs. Emma Waters of Whitewater has returned to her home after a successful operation for cataract on her left eye. About a year ago Mrs. Waters had a cataract removed from her right eye. She now has perfect vision in both eyes and can read the finest print.

GOLD MINE IN AN ASH PILE

Two Ten-Dollar Gold Pieces Went Into a Quality Hill Furnace.

A family residing on "Quality Hill" in the Third ward have an ash pile upon which they are keeping close watch, in hopes of discovering a gold mine. Whether they will ever discover gold or not is still an uncertainty, but the people that own the ash pile are morally certain that $20 of Uncle Sam's gold is somewhere among the ashes. On Christmas day a relative of the family sent them a Christmas box containing presents for the children and at the bottom of the pile placed two envelopes each containing a $10 gold piece for the husband and wife. The box arrived all right and the children's presents were removed, but the two envelopes containing the money were overlooked. The parents thinking that there was nothing more in the box threw it into the furnace, which on account of Christmas being a cold day was going full blast.

Later in the day the relative that sent the present and money called at the home and after talking for a time said to the gentleman who was with him: "Well I suppose that you have spent your money by this time." They said yes they had spent the money. He gave them the year before. He then asked them what they did with the money he sent them that day. They asked what money and where it was. He told them that it was in the box and they realized that it was the fact that it was a cold day and there was a hot fire in the furnace the grate was immediately dumped, and as soon as the charge was sufficiently cooled they started poking it over to see if by any possibility the gold had not melted. They were not successful in their search and the next day had the hired man sit the ashes thoroughly. With all their work they could find no trace of their gold but they are satisfied that they have the most valuable ash heap on "Quality Hill" and that is something in that neighborhood.

CHIEF ENGINEER MAKES A REPORT

Gives Interesting Figures to the Common Council at Last Night's Session.

Chief Engineer Klein's report for the past year as presented to the council last night was very interesting. It follows in part:

The total loss sustained during the year amounts to $165,102.43, the same being on buildings and contents. The uninsured loss on the above is $25,220.00. This leaves an insured loss of $79,182.43. This loss involved insurance amounting to $192,250.00. The principal losses were as follows:

F. M. Harding & Co.	$51,200.00
Joseph Grundy	30,000.00
Rock River Machine Co.	6,888.24
Fathers & Jeffries	5,000.00
Janesville Street Railway Co.	3,995.20

There were 74 fires and fire alarms during the year, 62 of which were box alarms, the balance being still alarms or incipient fires reported to me by insurance agents interested in the same. In responding to these fire alarms the fire department traveled 35 3/4 miles and was in actual service 37 hours.

The hose wagons attended fires and laid hose as follows:

West Side hose cart	19	12470
East Side hose cart	19	12470
Combination wagon	10	5200

Total feet hose laid..... 23300
The hook and ladder company raised ladders at 12 fires, the total number of feet being 575.

The expenses of the fire department for the year were $10,422.89 and the cost of hydrant rental $1,762.44.

The Hose On Hand

Of the hose on hand the report shows that 2,500 feet of the 5,500 lb first-class, the balance being unreliable. The chief recommends that hereafter hose be purchased in 1,000 foot lots so that it would make a small amount going out of service each year.

Horses' Condition

The horses are in good condition, the two new ones having proved themselves to be first-class animals. The Aerial truck was reported in poor condition and is in need of new axles and wheels. This is followed by a full account of the fire alarm system and the new switch board and batteries.

Fire Police

The report also speaks of the work of the fire police and their benefit to the department. The water works company are highly spoken of in regard to the amount of pressure maintained by them in time of fires. A number of improvements in the department were suggested by the report, some of which were acted upon by the council.
